

Crist makes the right pick for DCF head

Daytona Beach News Journal

8/22/2008

By putting the welfare of children and vulnerable adults ahead of partisan politics, Gov. Charlie Crist once again made the right call. Crist last week appointed George Sheldon interim secretary of the state Department of Children and Families.

View article on Daytona Beach News Journal