

Stimulus Providing Big Funding Boost for Early Childhood

4/3/2009

Advocates for early-childhood education are taking President Obama at his word that the billions of dollars for programs like Head Start included in the recent economic-stimulus package are merely a “down payment” on future expansion.

Read the article